If an employee does not indicate he/she is unavailable in advance the employee agrees that he/she will be available for additional hours of call in work. Section 12. When initially called the employee will estimate his arrival time at work considering the weather conditions and other factors that may effect the arrival time. If the emergency is time critical, the call out may be canceled in favor of an employee capable of a more rapid response.

Section 13. Employees may agree to exchange shifts when the change is approved by their supervisor. An employee's decision to substitute for another employee must be made freely and without coercion. Where one employee substitutes for another, each employee will be credited as if he or she had worked his or her normal schedule. In no event shall shift exchanges result in overtime pay under this Agreement. Employees who exchange shifts shall so note on their time cards. Employees are solely responsible for tracking shift exchanges. The Employer will not keep a record of the hours of the substitute work.
