ARTICLE 1. RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Association as the sole and exclusive representative of all employees within the bargaining unit as defined in the Board of Personnel Appeals.

ARTICLE 2. ASSOCIATION RIGHTS

Section 1. In the event the Association designates a member employee to act in the capacity as official spokesperson for the Association on any matter, such a designation shall be made in writing in advance to the Employer, and shall specify the period of time covered by the designation. In addition, should the Association change such spokesperson, prior notification shall be forwarded to the Employer.

Section 2. The internal business of the Association shall be conducted by the employees during their non-duty hours; provided, however that selected and designated Association officers shall, with prior Management approval, be allowed a reasonable amount of paid time to investigate and process grievances prior to the commencement of arbitration proceedings. The Employer will not compensate the above mentioned individuals for time spent on such activities outside of their normal work schedule. Section 3. The Association's staff will be allowed to visit work areas of the employees during working hours and confer on employment related matters, provided that such visitations shall be coordinated in advance with the designee of the Superintendent.

Section 4. The Association, or the Association Chapter President, may post information for members.

Section 5. The Association staff shall have the right to inspect an employee's personnel file with the exception of medical information unless the issue involves such matters, after receiving written permission and release from the employee to do so, and only in cases involving an official dispute between the employee and the Employer. ARTICLE 6. NON-DISCRIMINATION

Section 1. In accordance with 49-3-201(1), MCA, more commonly referred to as the Governmental Code of Fair Practices, the Employer shall recruit, appoint, assign, train, evaluate, and promote its personnel on the basis of merit and qualifications without regard to race, color, religion, creed, political ideas, sex, age, marital status, physical or mental disability, or national origin. However, any complaint alleging non-compliance with Article 6, Section 1 in whole or in part cannot be processed through the grievance and arbitration procedures outlined in Article 11, and the sole remedy for any alleged violation shall be that stated under Title 49 of the Montana Code Annotated. Further, the Association agrees not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, political ideas, sex, sexual orientation, age, marital status, physical or mental handicap, or national origin.

Employment of state and local government personnel.

Section 2. No unit member shall be discharged or discriminated against for engaging in any protected activities under the provisions of the Montana Public Employees Collective Bargaining Act.

ARTICLE 7. PAY AND HOURS

Section 1. Compensation for employees shall be in accordance with state statute and the Employer's broadband pay plan rules.

Section 2. A regular workweek shall consist of five regular workdays, Monday through Friday inclusive, totaling 40 hours. Two 15-minute rest breaks, one taken during the first half of the day, and the second taken during the second half of the day, except that by mutual agreement, rest breaks may be scheduled otherwise. Rest breaks cannot be accumulated, nor will any work performed during rest breaks be subject to overtime or compensatory time credits.

Employees shall also be granted a duty-free meal break. The meal break shall normally be without pay.

Section 3. The Employer may require reasonable amounts of overtime/ compensatory time to be worked, but only in cases involving emergency.

Section 4. Employees who are called back to work after having left the work place shall be compensated for no less than 2 hours for each such call-out. It is understood that this provision does not apply to work which is essentially a continuation of the work day, or if the employee decides to return to work, rather than continue the work day.

Section 5. When emergency conditions require the closing or curtailing of the office, the employee shall be paid for the first 5 days of the office closure. The Employer will make every effort to schedule alternate work areas during this period.

Section 6. An employee's permanent schedule shall not be changed without 10 working days' notice of the change. The 10-day notification may be waived by the employee or in emergency situations.

Section 7. Wages

Subsection 1. Pay ranges. The pay ranges attached (Addendum A) are for bargaining unit positions represented by the Association.

Subsection 2. Occupational market pay. All employees will be paid at no less than their assigned pay range as described in Addendum A.

Subsection 3. Hiring rates. Employees new to state government will typically be hired at the minimum entry rate of the market range for the occupation. At the discretion of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, exceptions may be made to meet the goals of the agency for reasons such as the employee's job-related qualifications; existing salary relationships within the job class, band, and work unit; OPI's ability to pay; and the competitive labor market.

Subsection 4. Training assignments. The Superintendent of Public Instruction or designee may establish written training assignments to enable an employee to gain the additional experience and training required for the job. In these cases, the Superintendent of Public Instruction or designee may set the employee's base pay rate below the minimum entry rate for a period of time not to exceed two years. At the successful completion of the training assignment, the employee's pay will be set at no less than the entry rate of pay for the occupational pay range.

Subsection 5. Promotions and demotions. The following provisions apply, unless the Superintendent of Public Instruction makes an exception under special circumstances, with notice to the union.

- A. Promotions into positions in a higher pay band. A promoted employee will receive no less than the advertised rate for the new position, unless the employee is promoted into a training assignment as described in Article 7, Section 7, Subsection 4, above.
- B. Demotions. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall typically set the base salary of an employee demoted to no less than the advertised rate for the new position unless the employee is assigned to a training assignment as described in Article 7, Section 7, Subsection 4, above.

Subsection 6. Within band pay adjustments. Temporary or permanent progression within a single occupational pay band, other than that previously described, may be allowed under special circumstances at the discretion of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, with notice to the Association.

Subsection 7. Reclassifications. Reclassification of a position that results in a change of band or of job code, with a different pay range that is lower than the current assignment for the position, will not result in a pay reduction for the employee. If the reclassification results in a band or job code pay range that is higher, the OPI Broadband Pay Plan Rules shall apply.

Subsection 8. Establishment of new pay ranges. The parties agree that any changes to Addendum A are subject to collective bargaining. Upon ratification of this collective bargaining agreement all union employees shall receive a $.50 raise.

ARTICLE 8. OVERTIME AND COMPENSATORY TIME

Section 1. Non-exempt employee means an employee subject to the overtime provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standard Act and its regulations. Non-exempt employees shall be paid at a rate of 1 1/2 times their regular rate of pay for all authorized time they work over 40 hours per week.

Section 2. Upon mutual agreement between the employee and Management, a non-exempt employee may be allowed to accrue and use non-exempt compensatory time in lieu of cash overtime.

Subsection 1. Compensatory time for non-exempt employees will accrue at the rate of 1 ½ hours for each hour of overtime worked.

Subsection 2. Non-exempt compensatory time may not be accrued beyond two hundred and forty hours (240), which represents not more than 160 hours of actual overtime worked.

Subsection 3. A non-exempt employee must have the appropriate supervisor's prior approval to accrue or use compensatory time.

Subsection 4. Upon termination, unused accumulated non-exempt compensatory time will be paid to the employee at their final regular rate of pay, or the average regular rate received by such employee during the last three years of employment, whichever is higher. The Superintendent may approve the use of non-exempt compensatory time to extend an employee's termination date.

Article 8, Section 2 shall be administered in accordance with Federal Fair Labor Standards Act, Federal regulations, and State Policy Overtime and Nonexempt Compensatory Time Policy.

Section 3. Exempt employee means an employee in a position designated as executive, administrative, or professional, which is not subject to the overtime pay provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act and its regulations. Exempt employees shall be given compensatory time under the following provisions:

Subsection 1. Compensatory time will be credited on an hour-for-hour basis for all authorized time worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

Subsection 2. Compensatory time will be recorded in increments of no less than one-half hour, but all time earned or taken in fractions of one hour shall be accumulated until one hour minimum is attained, at which point the time will be recorded.

Subsection 3. Compensatory time may be accumulated to a maximum of 120 hours. Compensatory time in excess of 120 hours will be forfeited if not taken within 90 calendar days from the last day of the calendar year in which the excess was accrued.

Subsection 4. Compensatory time shall be earned as approved by the Employer and shall be taken at a time agreeable to the employee and the Employer.

Subsection 5. There is no obligation for the Employer to pay out properly classified FLSA exempt compensatory time.

Section 4. The Employer shall make a good faith effort to equalize the offer and schedule overtime and compensatory time among employees in the same work unit and classification where training and ability are sufficient to do the work.

Section 5. If job-related travel time is scheduled for other than the employee's normal work week, such travel time shall be compensated in accordance with the terms of Article 8.

Section 6. Authorized annual leave, holiday leave, sick leave, or compensatory time off shall constitute time worked when computing overtime or compensatory time credits under Article 8.

Section 7. The Employer agrees that no administrator or supervisor will perform the duties of an employee covered by this Agreement who is ready, willing and able to perform such duties and who would normally be entitled to overtime for such performance.

Section 8. The Employer agrees not to block out periods of time during which by policy employees will not be allowed to use accrued compensatory time. It is understood that the Employer may approve or disapprove compensatory time usage dependent upon the needs of the agency.

ARTICLE 11. PROBLEM RESOLUTION

Section 1. The parties hereby agree to attempt to promptly resolve disputes and disagreements that may develop. The parties agree to meet whenever it becomes necessary to discuss matters of concern at mutually acceptable times and places to undertake the resolution of such disputes and disagreements.

Section 2. The following process shall be used to resolve any dispute over the interpretation or application of the terms of the Agreement.

Subsection 1. All grievances must be discussed with the immediate supervisor prior to the filing of a formal grievance. In no event shall any formal grievance be filed until the immediate supervisor has been given opportunity to attempt resolution.

Subsection 2. In the event of failure of informal resolution, a formal grievance will be filed in writing with the immediate supervisor within 15 working days of the occurrence of the dispute. The immediate supervisor shall have 5 working days in which to respond.

Subsection 3. In the event the immediate supervisor's response is deemed inappropriate, the grievance may be forwarded by the filing party to the next level of supervision within 5 working days of receipt of the immediate supervisor's response. This same process shall continue on to the next level of supervision, if necessary. The Assistant Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent shall have 5 working days in which to respond, in writing.

Subsection 4. In the event that the Employer's response in Subsection 3 is not acceptable to the grievant, the parties will attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation. The human resource manager or any other mutually acceptable individual may be used as mediator. Time lines will be suspended while the grievance is in mediation. Either party or the mediator may end the mediation process at any time by notifying all parties in writing: Mediation must be completed within 60 days of the day that it is begun.

Subsection 5. In the event that mediation is unsuccessful in resolving the grievance, the grievance may be forwarded to the Superintendent within 5 working days after mediation had ended. The Superintendent shall have 10 working days to respond to the grievance.

Subsection 6. The following rules shall apply to the filing of grievances:

- A. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement.
- B. A grievance not advanced to the next higher step within the time limit provided, shall be deemed permanently withdrawn as having been settled on the basis of the decision most recently given. Failure on the part of the Employer's representative to answer within the time limit set forth in any step will entitle the employee to the next step.

Subsection 7. In the event the decision of the Superintendent is deemed inappropriate, the Association may take the issue to final and binding arbitration. The following rules shall apply to the processing of a grievance to arbitration:

- A. The Association and the Superintendent shall mutually petition the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or the Board of Personnel Appeals for a list of 5 potential arbitrators from the surrounding area. This request shall be forwarded to the FMCS no later than 10 calendar days after the Association's notice to the Superintendent and the Chief of the State Office of Labor Relations of its intent to arbitrate the grievance.
- B. Within 10 calendar days of receipt of the list of potential arbitrators from the FMCS, the Association and the Superintendent shall pick the arbitrator by striking names in alternate order until one name remains, who shall be the arbitrator. The parties shall toss a coin to determine the first to strike a name.
- C. The arbitrator who hears the case shall issue his/her decision to both parties within 30 calendar days from the hearing, and such decision shall be final and binding upon the parties.
- D. The cost of the arbitrator, including all applied expenses, shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Association. In the event one party requests a transcript, the requesting party shall pay the costs of such. In the event both parties so request, the cost shall be equally split.
- E. Except in the case of interest arbitration arising out of Article 15, the arbitrator shall not add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement.
- F. Any failure or refusal to abide by their terms of this grievance or arbitration procedures shall constitute a waiver by the party who breaches the Agreement, of the rights created herein.

- G. An appointed authority may replace any titled position in the grievance procedure, provided that such appointee has full authority to act in the capacity of the person being replaced.

ARTICLE 12. REDUCTION IN FORCE

Section 1. Seniority means an employee's length of service and shall be computed from the date the employee began regular, uninterrupted service with the Office of Public Instruction in a position covered by this Agreement. Temporary employees do not accrue seniority and are not part of the bargaining unit.

For the purposes of this Article, full-time status is defined by the employee's position and not the schedule arranged with the supervisor.

Subsection 1. Seniority shall cease to accrue during a leave without pay in excess of 60 working days, or upon a permanent transfer out of the bargaining unit, and shall be revoked upon voluntary termination, retirement, or discharge for cause. When an employee returns to the bargaining unit from an approved leave or transfers into the bargaining unit from a position within the OPI, seniority shall begin to accrue at the point when the employee returns to the bargaining unit and shall include all previous time earned within the bargaining unit.

Subsection 2. Service time in a position in the OPI prior to the first Collective Bargaining Agreement on May 11, 1981, shall be counted towards an employee's seniority.

Subsection 3. On January 1, of each year, and upon request from the Association Chapter President, the Employer shall give a list of all OPI bargaining unit members and their seniority status to the Association Chapter President. Disputes concerning the seniority roster must be raised within 30 calendar days of delivery of the roster, or it shall be considered correct.

Subsection 4. If a Reduction in Force (RIF) is necessary, the employee should be counseled as much as possible in advance, by OPI management personnel, of the anticipated action, available options and reasons for the layoff. When 25 or more employees are affected, notice must be at least 60 days prior to the RIF. When the RIF affects less than 25 employees, notice must be at least 14 days prior. Job profiles are available from the human resources manager upon request.

Section 2. When the Employer determines to reduce the number of employees, the Employer will identify the targeted position(s). The Employer will determine minimum qualifications for each targeted position based on the current job profile. The determination as to whether the employee electing to bump meets the minimum qualifications of the current job profile shall be based on an updated resume. The affected employee(s) may then elect to bump other employees with less seniority in the bargaining unit using the following procedure:

- 1) Bump the least senior employee in the same O-NET job group and pay band for which the RIF'd employee meets the minimum qualifications for that position; if this is not possible, then,
- 2) Bump the least senior employee that is in the same band for which the RIF'd employee meets minimum qualifications for that position; if this is not possible, then,
- 3) Bump the least senior employee in the same O-NET job group and next lower pay band for which the RIF'd employee meets the minimum qualifications for that position; if this is not possible, then,
- 4) Bump the least senior employee that is in the next lower band for which the RIF'd employee meets minimum qualifications for that position. Steps 3 and 4 repeat through the lowest pay band. If this is not possible, then,
- 5) Bump any temporary position in the any pay band for which the RIF'd employee meets minimum qualifications for that position (the employee loses permanent status and accrued seniority).

Subsection 1. An employee wishing to exercise bumping rights shall notify the human resources manager, in writing, of the position the employee wishes to bump into within 10 working days or a reasonable period of time mutually agreed upon by the employee and Employer, after receiving written notification of the RIF. The employee must also submit an updated resume.

Subsection 2. All permanent part-time employees are covered by the same language listed in Article 12, with the understanding that permanent part-time employees' rights are connected and confined to other permanent part-time positions. For example, an employee in a permanent part-time position cannot use the employee's seniority status to replace a less senior employee unless that employee is also in a permanent part-time position. An employee in a full-time position may not replace a less senior employee in a part-time position.

Section 3. If the layoff is anticipated to last longer than 15 working days, the employee shall be terminated. Upon termination, due to a RIF, the employee may cash out accumulated annual leave, sick leave and retirement contributions, or the agency may allow the employee to maintain accumulated annual leave and sick leave for the preference/reinstatement period of one calendar year from the effective date of layoff, even though terminated. A laid off employee who elects to retain sick leave, annual leave or both may subsequently submit a written request to cash out the leave at any time during the one-year reinstatement period or the State Employee Protection Act benefit period. At the end of the State Employee Protection Act benefit period, provided the employee elected these benefits, the agency must cash out all leave balances and effectively terminate the employment relationship.

Subsection 1. The most senior employee on layoff status who possesses the qualifications as discussed above will be offered open positions as they become available before less senior employees on layoff status. Any laid off employee who refuses a recall offer or offer of reinstatement to a position of the same or higher classification than the position the employee held when laid off, will lose reduction in force rights to recall or reinstatement.

Subsection 2. The Employer will notify employees being recalled of available positions in writing by certified mail. If an employee fails to respond to the notice of recall or an offer of reinstatement within 5 calendar days of receiving the notice, the employee will be considered to have forfeited the employee's right to return to work. It shall be the employee's responsibility to keep the Employer notified of the employee's current address.

Subsection 3. All privileges and benefits extended by this rule terminate at the end of the one-year preference/reinstatement period.

Section 4. At all stages of the RIF process, the following pay protection shall be in place for employees:

- 1) If the entry level salary for the new position is greater than the employee's current salary, the employee will be paid at the entry level for the new position.
- 2) If the new position is in the same group and pay band, the employee will maintain the employee's current hourly pay rate.
- 3) If the entry level for the new position is less than the employee's current salary, the employee may maintain the employee's current market ratio up to 100% of market.

Subsection 1. Layoff shall not be used as an alternative to discharging an employee for cause or disciplinary purposes. Unsatisfactory employees should be terminated subsequent to complete and appropriate evaluation, review and documentation. If an unsatisfactory employee is laid off without appropriate evaluation, review and documentation, the employee must be treated the same as any other laid off employee.

ARTICLE 13. VACANCIES AND PROMOTIONS

Section 1. The following procedures will be followed in the posting and filling of vacant or newly created permanent positions. The purpose of this system is to inform employees of vacancies and newly created positions and to afford employees, who are interested and who feel they qualify, an equal opportunity to apply for the vacant or newly created position. It is understood that newly hired employees and employees on a leave of absence for any reason may not have the same period of notice as other employees concerning position vacancies.

Subsection 1. When a vacant or newly created permanent position is to be filled, the Employer shall prepare a Job Posting Notice and post same on the OPI intranet. The notice will be posted on the OPI intranet and shall state where interested employees are to make application, the cut-off date for application submittal, and the minimum qualifications. When a non-exempt bargaining unit position pay band 4 or below is to be filled, the Employer will make every effort to fill the position from qualified applicants within the bargaining unit.

Subsection 2. The Employer will insure that all applications are considered in the selection process. Experience and/or education, qualifications, and seniority shall be the factors considered when filling vacant or new positions. When using a "structured" hiring process, based on a measured score, if the final scores of the top applicants are substantially equal (defined as within three percentage points or less of the highest score), the OPI employee with the most seniority will have preference. Internal applicants must have been employed with the OPI at least one year (as of the date the vacancy announcement closes) for the seniority preference to apply. Members of the bargaining unit who are unsuccessful applicants shall be so notified upon completion of the selection process.

Subsection 3. All positions in the bargaining unit shall be posted per the provisions of this Article for at least seven calendar days. However, this will not apply to positions not included in the bargaining unit. The human resource manager will post all vacancies via email to all employees in addition to posting a copy on the OPI intranet.

ARTICLE 14. RATINGS AND WARNINGS

Section 1. When performance appraisals are prepared by the employee's immediate supervisor and the next higher supervisor, the results of the combined appraisal shall be transmitted to the employee in the form of a copy of the performance appraisal.

Section 2. No information reflecting critically upon an employee shall be placed in the personnel file of the employee that does not bear either the signature or initials of the employee, or the certificate of the Employer's representative that the employee was shown the material and refused to sign it. A copy of any such materials shall be furnished to the employee upon request. If the employee desires to submit a written statement in explanation or mitigation of any remark on the performance appraisal form, the statement shall be attached to the rating form in the personnel file. The statement shall be signed and dated by the employee and by the immediate supervisor.

Section 3. The Employer shall treat letters of caution, consultation, warning, admonishment, and reprimand as temporary contents of a personnel file. Such letters shall be removed from the personnel file within a reasonable time of being placed in the personnel file, but in no event later than 2 years after being placed in the personnel file. The Superintendent may waive this provision concerning such letters if they may be used to support disciplinary action arising from similar employee behavior.

ARTICLE 15. NOTIFICATIONS

Section 1. On January 1 of each year, the Employer shall give a list of all OPI bargaining unit members and their seniority status to the Association Chapter President.

Section 2. The Employer shall give the Association 10 calendar days' notice and an opportunity to comment on any Reduction in Force or downgrades in classification. The notice shall include a list of all employees involved.
