Faculty members are required to annually submit course curricula and syllabi for all courses taught, including overloads, to the Vice

Notification to return to work shall be considered as having been accomplished by the College when it mails a certified letter to the faculty member at his/her last known address.

- G. A form which must be used for the presenting of grievances shall be attached to this Agreement.
- H. The grievant may be accompanied by an Association representative.
- I. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the College or the Administration against any person because of participation in this grievance procedure.

If the grievance is not resolved as a result of this meeting, the grievance shall be reduced to writing on the form provided by the College, attached hereto, which sets forth the facts and the specific portions of this Agreement allegedly violated and the particular relief sought. An alleged grievance must be presented in writing on the appropriate form to Dean of Administrative Services and Human Resources within fifteen (15) business days of the occurrence of the event, or within fifteen (15) business days of the time that the grievant through the use of diligence should have known of the alleged grievance.

The Dean of Administrative Services and HR shall meet with the grievant within ten (10) business days after receipt of the written grievance and give a written answer to the grievant within ten (10) business days after the meeting. The grievant has ten (10) business days within which to either accept the answer or appeal it in writing to the next level.

Step II. If the grievance has not been resolved at Step I, it may then be appealed in writing to the President of the College. The President or his designee shall meet within ten (10) business days after receipt of the written appeal to discuss the problem with the grievant. Within ten (10) business days of the meeting the President or his designee shall submit a written answer to the grievant.

16.4 The decision of the President at Step II shall be the final decision of the College, except in cases involving a probationary or permanent faculty member who is being reduced in compensation, suspended without pay, receives a formal written reprimand that is placed in the personnel file, or dismissed during the term of an annual contract, or in cases involving a permanent faculty member whose annual contract is not renewed at the end of its term. Subject to the above provisions, the grievant or the College shall have the right to take such other action or pursue such other remedies available to it by law or equity.

16.5 If the grievance involves a permanent or probationary faculty member who is being reduced in pay, suspended without pay, receives a formal written reprimand that is placed in the personnel file, or dismissed during the term of an annual contract or a permanent faculty member whose annual contract has not been renewed at the end of its term and remains unresolved at the conclusion of Step II, it may be submitted for binding arbitration at the discretion of the grievant, provided written notice of the request for submission to arbitration is delivered to the College President's Office within ten (10) business days after the date of receipt of the decision at Step II.

If the parties do not agree as to the arbitrator within five (5) business days from the notification date that arbitration shall be pursued, the Board of Personnel Appeals shall be called upon to submit, within three (3) business days to both parties, a list of five (5) names. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the list, the parties shall select an arbitrator by striking two names from the list in alternate order, and the name so remaining shall be the arbitrator.

16.6 Arbitration

- A. If the grievance is not resolved or otherwise disposed of at Step II, the Association may request arbitration by giving notice to the other party within ten (10) business days of the date of the issuance of the Step II decision.
- B. Within ten (10) business days after such written notice of submission to arbitration, the President and/or the Association may request a list of five (5) arbitrators from the Board of Personnel Appeals. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the list, each party shall strike two names from the list in alternate order and the name remaining shall be the arbitrator.
- C. The arbitrator shall consider the grievance and render a decision that shall be final and binding upon the parties.

16.7 Arbitration Costs

Each party shall bear its own cost of arbitration except that the fees and charges of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. If one of the parties wants transcripts from the arbitration proceedings, the party requesting the transcript shall pay all costs of the transcript. If both parties request transcripts, they shall share equally the costs.

16.8 Election of Remedies

A grievant, or the Association on behalf of any grievant, instituting any action, proceeding or complaint in a federal or state court of law or before an administrative tribunal, federal agency, state agency or seeking relief through any statutory or regulatory process for which relief may be granted, subject matter of which may constitute a grievance under this Agreement, shall immediately thereupon waive any and all rights to pursue a grievance under this article. Upon instituting a proceeding in another form as outlined herein, the employee shall waive his/her right to initiate a grievance pursuant to this article or, if the grievance is pending in the grievance procedure, the right to pursue it further shall be immediately waived.

16.9 Jurisdiction of the Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall have no power to alter, add to, or subtract from the terms of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall decide all substantive and procedural arbitrability issues. Upon request of either party, the merits of a grievance and the substantive and procedural arbitrability issues arising in connection with that grievance shall be consolidated for hearing before an arbitrator.

The award of the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction should either party fail to implement the award. If a motion to vacate the arbitrator's award is entered into a court of competent jurisdiction, and the initiating party does not prevail in the litigation, such party shall bear the full costs of such action including, but not limited to the adverse party's court costs, legal fees, and other related expenses incurred as a result of defending such action.

16.10 Time of Hearings and Meetings.

Grievance hearing and meetings shall be conducted at a time that will provide an opportunity for the aggrieved party and all parties of interest to be present.

phone or live conference software). The assigned faculty committee member will be compensated $50 per meeting. There will be no additional compensation for meetings occurring during a faculty member's value added/SOAR day. Faculty are not required to attend summer meetings. Credit for each full year of teaching experience at an accredited institution will be recognized.
4. Lateral education advancement on the salary schedule shall be allowed pursuant to the following criteria:

 - (b) No advancement credits shall be accepted for course work that is duplicative unless written approval has been granted by the College President.
 - (c) Credits earned for advancement on the salary schedule must be approved in writing in advance by the Vice President of Academic Affairs and must be related to an employee's teaching assignment or professional development plan. Appropriate and applicable lower division credits may also be approved.
5. Employees who have earned a Master's degree in a field directly related to their teaching assignment from an institution whose accreditation is recognized by MCC shall be entitled to a stipend as shown on the pay matrix. Employees who have earned a doctorate degree in a field directly related to their teaching assignment from an institution whose accreditation is recognized by MCC shall be entitled to a stipend as shown on the pay matrix. Any employee who is a licensed Registered Nurse and is teaching in the nursing program shall be entitled to a stipend as shown on the salary schedule. If approved by the President, employees with a nationally recognized professional/technical certification or state licensure shall be entitled to a stipend as shown on the pay matrix, if such certification or license is directly related to their teaching assignment. Once such stipend is granted, it shall not be withdrawn as long as such certification or license is maintained by the faculty member and the criteria for obtaining such certification or license are not materially altered.

6. The process for educational advancement is as follows:
 - (a) Evaluation of credits for education advancement shall be made following receipt of official transcripts or records.
 - (b) The teacher is responsible for seeing that official transcripts and records are ordered and provided to the College.

Salary adjustments for the following year will be effective at the opening of the fall semester if credit hours have been earned before September 1. Verification of credit hours earned shall be furnished to the Vice President of Academic Affairs before October 1. Educational advancement shall be verified by October 1 or it will not be allowed until the next fiscal year.

Any faculty member who receives notice of the awarding of an annual individual contract or renewal of an annual individual contract shall provide the College with written acceptance of such contract within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice. Failure to notify the College of acceptance within such twenty (20) days shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the faculty member's non-acceptance of employment.
10. The employer at its discretion pays newly hired faculty members a recruitment adjustment stipend of up to $10,000 in additional compensation when external market pressures make recruitment of qualified faculty in that discipline extraordinarily difficult. The Labor/Management Committee will be consulted whenever it is necessary to offer a recruitment adjustment to faculty. Faculty members receiving a recruitment adjustment stipend will be eligible for base increases, experience increases, and promotion and minimum increases based upon his/her placement on the faculty salary schedule (not including the recruitment adjustment stipend) which are negotiated in subsequent years. APPENDIX B – Telework Procedure

Procedure Statement:

The goal of this document is to provide telework procedures that meet the faculty job description and the master faculty agreement requirements for full-time online instructors or full-time faculty with extenuating circumstances.

Eligibility and Participation:

Teleworking is not a formal, universal employee benefit, but rather, an alternate method of meeting the needs of the college's online or distance programs. Full-time faculty of Miles Community College may be eligible for telework if:

1. One hundred percent (100%) of their courses are taught online in a Board of Regents approved fully online program other than the general AA and AS, or
2. One hundred percent (100%) of their courses are taught at an off-campus teaching site over fifty (50) miles from the MCC campus, or
3. They receive approval from the Telework Committee for extenuating circumstances of one year or less. The Telework Committee will be comprised of two (2) union representatives to be assigned by the President of the Miles Community College Faculty Association, the Vice President of Academic Affairs and the Vice President of Administration and Finance. At least a 3-1 vote will be considered as majority to obtain approval.

If the faculty member meets one of the criteria above, they must also pass the following litmus test:

- The instructor owns a computer and the software necessary to teach their class load at the same level of service as provided on campus.
- The telecommuting arrangement must not disrupt service to the instructor's students or other employees of the College.

Work Performance Expectations of Teleworkers:

Telework faculty are under the jurisdiction of the faculty master agreement and MCC Board Policy. They are responsible for all components of a full-time faculty member's job description. However, they work online from an off-campus location and do not have an on campus office with access to technology, equipment and supplies.

The performance standards and evaluation instrument for the full-time faculty member working at the alternate worksite shall be equivalent to the standards used for full-time faculty working on campus. Nothing in the Telecommuting Procedure waives or changes standards of performance or behavior in the workplace with the exception of attending graduation. Telecommuting instructors are not required to attend the graduation ceremony in May.

The arrangement can be terminated by either party with a minimum notice of seven working days if it can be shown that the arrangement is no longer feasible. The notice requirement is waived in cases of temporary changes to the arrangement arising from emergency conditions.

Telework Agreements:

Telework Agreements shall be in writing only for those full-time faculty members who have been granted approval from the Telework Committee for extenuating circumstances of one year or less. The agreement shall address the following:

1. Faculty course load expectations during the telework period.
2. Performance expectations and measurements.
3. Working hours.
4. Duration of the agreement.
5. A provision that the entire MCC Telework Procedure is inclusive in the Teleworking Agreement.
6. Signatures of the instructor, Vice President of Academics, and the Dean of Administrative Services and HR.

Hours of Work and Pay Provisions:

Telework faculty members will be expected to be logged into their online courses and working on coursework for 35 hours per week minimum. They must post a minimum of 7 office hours on each syllabus where they may be reached by telephone or internet without fail and inform the Vice President of Academic Affairs. If the teleworker will not be available during their office hours on any given day, they must report this to the Vice President and the students in the courses.

Communication:

The telework instructor is primarily responsible for maintaining effective communication and workflow among co-workers and students. The teleworking faculty member will be responsible for paying individual Internet lines.

A stipend for a cell phone will be provided at the basic user level as outlined in the MCC Board policy. The expectation will be that the teleworker use the cell phone to communicate with Miles Community College personnel, students and other people who assist with the completion of hired duties. Inaccessibility via the cell phone will result in the loss of the cell phone and the teleworking faculty member will become responsible for all communication costs in the course of their job.

Advising:

The telework instructor will be assigned advisees in the recognized distance program in which they teach. The advisees will be distance education students, and thus will have the expectation of talking with their instructor via telephone, e-mail or web-conferencing. It will be the responsibility of the teleworker to keep in close contact with their advisees concerning grades, at-risk reports, class scheduling, drop/add procedures, and graduation requirements.

The drop/add forms will be available electronically after the eighth class day for electronic signatures. Prior to the eighth class day, the advisor and/or student have the capability to drop or add classes in the student management system. The at-risk reports and intent to graduate forms will also be available online for students and advisors.

Faculty Meetings and Committee Assignments:

The telework faculty shall attend faculty meetings, division meetings, all-employee meetings, and committee work through technology. Utilizing a web camera and microphone provided by the teleworker and attached to a computer, he/she will attend scheduled meetings through internet calls via an agreed upon streaming video and audio platform. This platform will be approved and supported by the IT department at Miles Community College, however, all hardware issues are the responsibility of the teleworker.

Compensation, Benefits, Taxes:

Compensation and benefits as outlined in the faculty master agreement, including leave accruals, are not affected by teleworking. Teleworking faculty are responsible for any personal income tax implications resulting from working at a home workspace.

Injuries/Workers Compensation/Leave:

The employee will be covered by worker's compensation laws and procedures for all work-related injuries that occur in the designated workspace during the telecommuter's defined work period. Worker's compensation will NOT apply to non-job related injuries that might occur in the designated workspace. Miles Community College is not liable for any injuries to family members, visitors and others in the designated workspace.

Telework instructors accrue leave as outlined in the Faculty Master Agreement. Leave requests will be managed through the Banner system.

Travel:

The telework instructor is not covered by the college when commuting to and from work on days the employee is working at the regular college worksite. Teleworking faculty members will be required to visit the main campus at least one time per year for professional development activities and to meet face-to-face with other campus faculty and staff.

Job related travel is compensable in accordance with the College travel policy as outlined in the Board of Trustees handbook.

Work Space Health and Safety:

The telework instructor is responsible for establishing and maintaining safe and healthful working conditions in their alternative work space. Instructors who wish to have help in determining whether their alternative work site/space is "safe and healthful" may request assistance from the Department of Labor and Industries, who offers free safety and health consultations through its Workplace Consultation Services Program.

Supplies:

The teleworking instructor may be reimbursed for supply purchases within their budgeted allowance. The division chair or director for their department, (general education, career and technical, or nursing) will approve supply purchases within the budgeted amounts. The acquisition process will be computerized through Banner.

Intellectual Property:

In the absence of a formal written agreement to the contrary, any copyrights arising from the work of the employee, even those performed while teleworking, are the property of the College.

Security:

College information and data that are stored at the alternative worksite should be kept in a secure area. For work that has security/confidentiality issues, passwords for computer access must be established. Backups of data should be performed on a scheduled basis and stored at the regular college worksite. Employees will take all precautions necessary to secure proprietary information and prevent unauthorized access to any college system from their alternate worksite.

APPENDIX C – Remote Work:

Addendum: Faculty shall be permitted to work from a remote location without using sick or personal leave for a maximum of 2 days per academic year with the prior approval of Vice President of Academic Affairs. The purpose is to assure minimal disruption of the instructional schedule when the faculty member needs to be off campus. This provision is valid for the duration of this contract and will be reassessed for continuation when the contract expires.
