Section 4. The Federation's staff will be allowed to visit work areas of the employees during work hours and confer on employment relations' matters, provided that such visitations shall be coordinated in advance with Management and shall not unduly disrupt work in progress.

Section 5. Accredited Federation representatives shall, with the written approval of the employee, have the right to inspect an employee's personnel file, with the exception of medical information, unless the issue involves such matters.

Section 6. The Federation may be allowed to use the employer's facilities for Federation meetings contingent upon availability and management approval. The Federation shall be liable for any damage as a result of such use.

Section 7. The Employer agrees to provide a pool of 32 hours of total paid time to be distributed among Federation bargaining team members for biannual contract negotiation sessions. No state vehicles, per diem nor travel expenses will be paid for negotiation sessions.

The Federation will notify the Employer of changes to membership due rates at least 30 calendar days in advance of such change.

Section 2. The Federation will indemnify, defend, and hold the Employer harmless against any claim made and against any suit instituted against the Employer, including attorney's fees and costs of defense thereof, on account of any check-off of Federation dues.

Absence without receipt of proper notification to the Employer from the employee shall constitute just cause for discipline up to termination, unless the failure to give such notification was due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee. In cases where employees are performing functions that will require a replacement, said employees will, if possible, notify Management of their absence as soon as possible.

Subsection 5. Approved sick leave may be used to attend a funeral.

Section 3. ANNUAL LEAVE. It is understood and agreed that an employee within the bargaining unit may choose to take at least two consecutive accrued weeks of annual leave per year. Section 5. LEAVE WITHOUT PAY. A leave without pay must be requested by the employee in advance, and Management shall then determine, based on MOM's Leave Without Pay Policy, if the employee can be excused for the time requested. The approval or disapproval from Management shall be based on the needs of the agency, the reason for the request, and the employee's work record.

Section 6. MILITARY LEAVE. Military leave shall be granted in accordance with MCA. 2-18-614, 10-1-1009, and Montana Operations Manual Leave of Absence Without Pay Policy.

2. Transfers will be approved by the Bureau Chief.
3. Members within a classification are subject to transfer to any station or position, based on Bureau business needs.
4. Requests for transfer, applications for promotion, or out-of-classification positions must follow appropriate human resources practices.
5. Employees on probation or under a corrective action plan may not submit transfer requests for vacant positions unless approved by the Bureau Chief.

ARTICLE 15 EVALUATIONS

Section 1. Employees who attain permanent status will be evaluated throughout the year by their immediate supervisor. The purpose of the evaluation is to provide feedback in a timely and consistent fashion. Areas that may be addressed are: strengths, weaknesses, expectations, methods of improvement, and progress. MVD is using the MakeNOTE system for these performance-related written entries. Management has sole discretion in choosing performance appraisal systems. The pertinent comments regarding the evaluation will be written and the employee will acknowledge.

A copy of any such material shall be furnished to the employee upon request.

Section 2. An employee desiring that material which he/she feels is incorrect and should be removed from the personnel file of the employee, shall have the right to appeal it through the grievance procedure.

Section 3. Disciplinary letters shall be considered temporary contents of the personnel file of an employee and shall be destroyed by the request of the employee, no sooner than 12 months after they have been placed in the file. The employer may waive this provision if behavior is ongoing or a pattern is established.

Section 4. Material placed in the personnel files of an employee without conformity with the provisions of this Section will not be used by the Employer in any subsequent evaluation or disciplinary proceeding involving the employee.

The Employer and the Union agree to the establishment of a Labor-Management Committee.

Section 1. The purpose of these Committees is to discuss any item of concern to either party and foster good communications between the Employer and the members of the bargaining unit. The Committee will not take the place of the grievance procedure or the collective bargaining process.

ARTICLE 20 SEVERABILITY

If any section subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or other party of this Agreement is determined or declared to be contrary to or in violation of any State or Federal law, the remainder of this Agreement shall not hereby be affected or invalidated.

ARTICLE 21 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Section 1. The parties acknowledge that during negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understanding and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement.

Therefore, the Employer and the Federation for the duration of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement. Section 2. Occupational market pay. Except for employees under training assignments, all employees will be paid no less than entry rate for their assigned pay range as shown in Schedule A below. These pay ranges will remain in effect for the life of this agreement.

Schedule A Occupational Pay Rates Driver Services Bureau (DSB)

Section 3. Vacancy Incentive Pay. If the DSB bargaining unit vacancy rate reaches 30% or more, each employee will receive an additional $1.50 per hour worked. Incentive pay will be triggered by the number of vacant full-time positions in the bargaining unit. The number of vacant positions will be determined on the first day of each pay period. The number of vacant positions, and correlated pay, will remain fixed for the remainder of that pay period regardless of any changes to the vacancy count. The incentive pay will be incurred for each hour worked in that pay period. The incentive will not be applied to leave hours.

Section 4. Training Pay. When an employee has been designated by the supervisor to train a new employee, the trainer will receive a $.50 increase per hour the training is being conducted.

Section 5. Health Insurance. Member-paid employee health benefit coverage costs for single member will not increase through plan year 2025. The cost of single-member health benefit coverage will be covered by the state share contribution, after the health incentive is applied. Member contributions, copay amounts, deductibles, coinsurance levels, and maximum out-of-pocket levels for employee-only coverage will not increase through plan year 2025.

Section 6. Compensation rates. Employees will typically be compensated at the entry rate for the occupation as shown in Section 2, Schedule A. At the discretion of the department, exceptions may be made for reasons such as the employee's job-related qualifications and the competitive labor market. Other considerations may include existing salary relationships within the job class, band and work unit and the agency's ability to pay. No employee will be paid less than the rates shown in Section 2, Schedule A.

Section 7. Promotions, transfers and demotions. The following provisions apply unless the Department makes an exception under special circumstances with notice to the union.

- (a) Promotions into positions in a higher pay band. A promotion is the advancement of an individual to a higher-level job in a higher-level pay band or pay range within a level for the same Occupational Standard based on qualifications and a significant change in work content. A promoted employee will receive a pay increase when moving to the higher pay band for the new position unless the employee is promoted into a training assignment.
- (b) Transfers into positions in the same level. An employee who is temporarily or permanently transferred to a position in the same level but different job class will be treated as a lateral transfer with no change in pay unless:
 - (i) the employee's current base salary is below the entry rate for the occupational pay range,
 - (ii) the duties of the new position are specialized, and the employee possesses relevant special skills and/or experience.

At the discretion of the Department, the employee's salary may be increased up to the target rate for the new position.

- (c) Demotions. The Department will typically set the base wage of an employee demoted to the position in a lower pay band anywhere between entry and target for the occupational pay range, or the Department may, at its discretion, maintain the employee's current salary.
